Agency/Department: William T. Grant Foundation.

Area of Research: For early-career scholars who have demonstrated success in conducting high-quality research.

Release and Expiration: N/A

Application Deadline: Annually in July.

Amount: $70,000 per year for a total of $350,000 over five years, four awards.

Length of Support: Five years.

Eligible Applicants: To be eligible for consideration, scholars must: (a) be employed at a nonprofit institution, either in the United States or abroad (this institution must have 501(c)(3) tax-exemption); (b) submit a proposal that is consistent with the Foundation's Current Research Interests; (c) have received their terminal degree within seven years of submitting their application. In many scholarly disciplines this translates to a maximum of seven years following the award of the doctoral degree and includes time spent as a post-doctoral fellow. The award may not be used as a post-doctoral fellowship.

Summary: The William T. Grant Scholars Program supports promising early-career researchers from diverse disciplines, who have demonstrated success in conducting high-quality research and are seeking to further develop and broaden their expertise. Candidates are nominated by a supporting institution and must submit five-year research plans that demonstrate creativity, intellectual rigor, and a commitment to continued professional development. William T. Grant Foundation supports research that enhances the understanding of: (1) how settings work, how they affect youth development, and how they can be improved; and (2) when, how, and under what conditions research evidence is used in policy and practice that affect youth, and how its use can be improved
