Summary: The purpose of this funding opportunity is to support collaborative intervention trials and other clinical and services studies at two or more sites. The studies typically share a specific protocol across the sites and are organized in order to increase sample size, accelerate recruitment, or increase sample diversity and representation. Each site has its own principal investigator (PI) and the program provides a mechanism for cross-site coordination, quality control, database management, statistical analysis, and reporting. Research must focus on achieving the health promotion and disease prevention objectives of Healthy People 2010. More information on Healthy People 2010 can be found at http://www.health.gov/healthypeople.
