Summary: This funding opportunity supports health services research on the prevention and treatment of drug and alcohol abuse. Proposed research might emphasize any of the following subjects: (1) Factors that affect the delivery of drug and alcohol abuse intervention and related services, such as social factors, personal behaviors and attributes, financing, organization, management, and health technologies; (2) Dimensions of drug and alcohol abuse intervention and related services, such as accessibility, utilization, quality, effectiveness, and costs; (3) Processes of blending science-based practices into community-based provision of drug and alcohol abuse prevention services; and (4) Research tools to facilitate higher quality health services research on drug and alcohol abuse. Investigators are encouraged to design research that will advance the delivery of drug and/or alcohol abuse care so that science-based prevention and treatment services are adopted in diverse settings, effectively implemented by a range of providers, and produce sustainable effects at reasonable cost for all those who need intervention.
