Grant Title: UPS FOUNDATION

Area of Research: Human welfare, educational programs, and major initiatives such as adult literacy.

Application Deadline: Requests for grants may be submitted at any time. However, those requests received during the last quarter of the year may not be considered until the following year.

Amount: Variable. Previous grants range from $70,000-300,000.

Length of Support: Variable.

Eligible applicants: organizations recognized as tax-exempt under section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Service code. The UPS Foundation does not award grants to individuals, religious organizations or theological functions, or church-sponsored programs limited to church members.

Agency/Department: UPS Foundation

Summary: This foundation supports national programs that focus on human welfare, educational programs, and major initiatives. Human Welfare programs include programs for families and children in crisis, the economically or culturally disadvantaged, the physically or mentally challenged, and community development programs. Foundation dollars are put to use helping those struggling with systemic effects of illiteracy, hunger, poverty and homelessness. Educational Programs include academic research, programs that raise the level of educational instruction, family learning opportunities, and school involvement projects. Major Initiatives currently include adult literacy and the distribution of prepared and perishable food.

Detailed Information: http://www.community.ups.com/philanthropy/grant.html